VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS by Article 1 of our Warrant of the 28th December, 1871, it is provided that lieutenants of our Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers appointed to that rank after the 1st November, 1871, shall receive pay in accordance with the scale set forth in that Article:

Our will and pleasure now is that from the 1st January, 1872, inclusive, all lieutenants of our Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers shall be entitled to pay in accordance with the scale above referred to, and likewise that sub lieutenants of our Cavalry and Infantry of the line and West India Regiments appointed on the 1st November, 1871, shall be entitled to pay in accordance with that scale.

Given at our court at Osborne, this 17th day of February, 1872, in the 35th year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

Cl. 140.—Gratuities to Soldiers on Discharge.

1. The general fund, which has been formed from the fines inflicted upon soldiers for the crime of drunkenness, is appropriated to the purpose of granting gratuities to well conducted soldiers on discharge from the Army.

2. The scale of gratuities will be regulated annually according to the state of the general fund, and will be notified to the Army from time to time.

3. From the 1st September to the 31st December, 1872, the issue of the gratuities will be regulated by the following rules, except that in colonial corps, the rates of gratuity will be only half those fixed for the Army generally.

4. Every soldier below the rank of corporal who shall be discharged during or at the end of his first period of service, otherwise than for misconduct, will be paid at the time of his discharge a gratuity calculated at the rate of ten shillings for each good conduct badge then in his possession.

5. Every such soldier who shall be discharged during or at the end of his second period of service, except for misconduct, will be paid at the time of his discharge a gratuity, calculated at the rate of 1*l.* for each good conduct badge then in his possession; provided that the total sum of 3*l.* shall not be exceeded, except in the case of a soldier who may not, for the ten years previous to his discharge, have been recorded as guilty of drunkenness. In such case the limit will be extended to 4*l.* if the soldier shall be in possession of four good conduct badges, and to 5*l.* if he shall be in possession of five good conduct badges.

6. Men transferred to the Reserve or Auxiliary Forces to complete their term of service will, at the time of such transfer, be paid the sum they are entitled to in accordance with the foregoing paragraphs, for each good conduct badge then in their possession.

7. Such men, if allowed to rejoin the colours, will not be required to refund any portion of the amount so received. They will be paid on final discharge from the Army a gratuity at the rate specified above for any badge or badges they may have become possessed of, over and above those they had when transferred to the Reserve or Auxiliary Forces.

8. The gratuities issued in accordance with these regulations will be inserted in the regimental pay list, on a separate form. The soldier will sign the form in evidence of his having received the gratuity; and in each case in which the sum of 4*l.* or 5*l.* is awarded, the charge will be further vouched by a certificate of the officer commanding that the soldier has not been recorded as guilty of drunkenness during the ten years immediately preceding his discharge.

9. Clause 197, Army Circulars, 1870, and Clause 17, Army Circulars, 1872, are hereby cancelled.

Cl. 141.—Command and Charge Pay for Officers of Royal Engineers.

1. From 1st October next, the command and charge pay of officers of the corps of Royal Engineers at home will be issued and accounted for by the paymaster of the depôt, Royal Engineers, at Chatham.

2. Officers who have previously drawn their command or charge pay through other channels will support the first claim made upon the paymaster of the depôt by a last pay certificate in the usual manner.

3. At foreign stations the command and charge pay will from 1st October be issued in all cases and accounted for by the local control paymaster. The first claim should be supported as above notified.

CONTROL SERVICES.

Cl. 142.—Equipment and Stores in Charge of the General Staff.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 70.—Canteen Serjeants.

(Specially issued, 16th August, 1872.)

I. Referring to the Royal Warrant dated 26th June, 1872 (Clause 122, Army Circulars, 1872), officers commanding corps are directed carefully to select a non-commissioned officer for the important position of permanent canteen serjeant, for which any staff or other serjeant is eligible, and to forward his name to the Quartermaster General for approval. (G.O. 97 of 1868, and 9 and 50 of 1869, are hereby cancelled.)

II. The canteen serjeant will receive from the public, under the above Royal Warrant, the pay and allowances of a private soldier, which may be supplemented by such further remuneration from the canteen fund as shall make up his total emoluments to a sum not exceeding 6*s.* a-day, subject to reduction at the discretion of the officer commanding, in proportion to the amount of work to be done.

III. The canteen serjeant, if found inefficient, is liable to removal from his appointment. He will then revert to the rank of serjeant, or take that of his successor, at the discretion of the officer commanding. Special reports of all such changes are to be made to the Quartermaster General.

IV. Should a commanding officer prefer to select a pensioned non-commissioned officer of Class I., II., III., or IV. (see Article 1078 of Royal Warrant dated 27th December, 1870), for canteen serjeant, he will submit his name to the Quartermaster General for approval. It is to be understood, however, that the employment of pensioners as canteen serjeants is only approved as an experimental measure, and will be reconsidered at the end of two years from the present date.

V. The present system may be continued for a limited time, till a duly qualified serjeant or pensioned non-commissioned officer is available.

G.O. 71.—Officers' Dress.

(Specially issued, 21st August, 1872.)

I. Her Majesty has been pleased to approve of a scarlet patrol jacket for officers of Infantry.

II. The jacket is to be of scarlet cloth or serge, according to the climate, of the same shape and size as the blue patrol jacket, with collar of the regimental facings. The sleeve braided as the shell jacket, according to rank. Scarlet shoulder strap with a small button and the number of the regiment in gold embroidered figures three quarters of an inch high and half an inch from the lower end of the strap. White cloth edging all round, except the collar, and round the shoulder strap. Scarlet lining. Field officers wear gold embroidered collar badges.

III. The scarlet patrol jacket is to be worn without the sash at drill, and on parade when the men are dressed in frocks.

IV. The blue patrol jacket may be worn on regimental boards and on fatigue, stable, or orderly duties, but not on parade. Officers of line regiments are not obliged to provide themselves with blue patrol jackets, but may wear the scarlet jacket on occasions when the blue patrol jacket is authorized to be worn.

V. A pattern of the scarlet patrol jacket is deposited in the officers' pattern room, Horse Guards, War Office, Pall Mall.

G.O. 72.—Promotions, Retirements, &c.

Referring to para. 140, Appendix A to G.O. 89 of 1871, and to G.O. 4 of 1872, it is to be understood, that when an officer is unable through illness to travel to a military station, the declaration required on promotion, exchange or retirement from the service, may be made before a justice of the peace, provided the officer transmits a certificate from his medical attendant of his unfitness to travel. In like manner, when an officer resident in a foreign country,—or colony where no British military authority is accessible,—the declaration may be made before a British consul or magistrate.

G.O. 73.—Army Signalling.

I. Referring to G.O. 67 of 1872, it is hereby notified that the certificates from the School of military engineering, held by officers and non-commissioned officers as to their qualification as instructors and assistant instructors in signalling, are to be considered as their appointment to those positions.

II. No emolument attaches to either of these appointments, and the holders thereof are not to be struck off regimental duty except when it is found to be incompatible with their employment in signalling.

Recruiting.

By Authority.

THE ARMY AND ITS ADVANTAGES.

Terms on which Young Men are invited to join Her Majesty's Forces.

INFANTRY.

A soldier who enlists in the Infantry engages to serve for 12 years, the first 6 years in the Army and the last 6 years in the Reserve.

The pay of an Infantry soldier while serving in the Army is 1*s.* 2*d.* a-day, with an additional 1*d.* "beer money."

Lodging, bedding, fuel and light are supplied free.

Good food is provided at less than cost price; at home, a daily ration, consisting of 1lb. of bread and ¾-lb. of meat, is supplied to soldiers for 4½*d.*, which is stopped from their pay; in the colonies, 1lb. of bread and 1lb. of meat is supplied for 3½*d.*

The soldier on first joining is clothed, and provided with brushes, razors, and all other necessaries, free of charge.

He is afterwards supplied annually with the principal articles of clothing; but is required to provide himself with some of the smaller articles, such as shirts and socks, and to keep up his supply of brushes, &c., at his own cost; these are furnished at a low price by Government; and the total expense to which he is put on this account does not, on an average, amount to a penny a-day.

In case of sickness, medical treatment in hospital, with proper food, &c., is provided for a stoppage of 10*d.* a-day from the soldier's pay.

By good conduct a soldier may obtain an increase to his pay of 1*d.* a-day after 2 years' service; and if he can read and write, and is deserving, he has every prospect of promotion to be non-commissioned officer, with a further increase of pay.

When a soldier is transferred to the Reserve for the last 6 years of his engagement, he receives 4*d.* a-day, in return for which he is liable to be drilled occasionally; the times of training and exercise will, however, be so arranged as to interfere as little as possible with his trade or occupation: he is also liable, in case of imminent national danger or of great emergency, to be recalled to service in the Army.

A soldier has no right to remain in the Army for more than 6 years, but the privilege of remaining in it for the whole 12 years will be allowed to such men as may be specially recommended by their commanding officers.

A soldier permitted to remain in the Army for the whole 12 years, if he has conducted himself well and is fit, may be allowed to re-engage, to complete 21 years' service; after which he will, on discharge, become entitled to a pension for life, varying from 8*d.* to 2*s.* 6*d.* a-day, according to his rank and service.

After completing 21 years' service he may apply to be allowed to remain for a further period in the Army. If his application be granted he will continue to serve as a soldier; and will be allowed to claim his discharge at any time, at the expiration of 3 months from the date of his giving notice to his commanding officer of his wish to leave the service.

During his extended service he may earn increased good conduct pay at the rate of—

2*d.*	a-day	after	6	years'	service.
3*d.*	„	„	12	„	„
4*d.*	„	„	18	„	„
5*d.*	„	„	23	„	„
6*d.*	„	„	28	„	„

If recalled to service in the Army from the Reserve, a soldier will receive full daily pay, and the time he has served in the Reserve will reckon towards good-conduct pay, as if he had served continuously in the Army; and, if at the end of his limited engagement he re-engages, the time he has served in the Reserve will count year for year towards pension on discharge.

CAVALRY, ROYAL ARTILLERY AND ROYAL ENGINEERS.

A soldier who enlists in the Cavalry, Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers, engages to serve for 12 years in the Army; at the end of which period, if he has conducted himself well and is fit, he may be allowed to re-engage to complete 21 years' service, after which he will, on discharge, receive a pension for life, varying from 8*d.* to 2*s.* 6*d.* a-day, according to his rank and service.

The daily pay of a soldier in the Cavalry is 1*s.* 5*d.*, in the Royal Artillery 1*s.* 5½*d.*, and in the Royal Engineers 1*s.* 4½*d.*, with an additional 1*d.* "beer money" in each case.

A soldier in the Royal Engineers receives, in addition to his ordinary pay, extra "working pay," generally varying from 1*s.* to 2*s.* a-day, according to the nature of the work on which he is employed, and his qualifications; trained artificers and good workmen are, however, alone accepted as recruits for the Royal Engineers.

Soldiers in the Cavalry, Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers receive the same advantages as regards lodging, food, clothing, medical treatment, good conduct pay and extension of service as have been described as given to soldiers in the Infantry.

ALL ARMS.

In addition to the advantages already explained, canteens are established in which a soldier can buy beer, tobacco and other articles at cheaper rates than elsewhere. He has the benefit of a regimental school, in which he may get a sound and useful education; the use of a library, and recreation room; and, in most places, other means of amusement. In many places he has time and opportunities given him to learn a trade, by which he may earn money whilst in the Army, and be the better prepared for gaining his livelihood when he leaves the service.

If wounded in action, or in any way maimed in the performance of his military duties, he becomes entitled to a pension.

A deserving soldier, on his discharge, is well fitted, from his regular habits, for many situations—such as those in the police, on the railroads, or other employments in civil life—and a good character on discharge from the service gives him the best testimonial for such employment.

As an additional inducement to good men to join Her Majesty's service, advantages are given to soldiers who on leaving the Army may wish for employment in the Civil Service, and to soldiers in the Reserve who wish for employment as country post-office messengers.

There are few callings in civil life open to unskilled labour which promise to a steady and deserving young man such advantages as are offered to a soldier in HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE.

RICHARD AIREY,
Adj. Gen.

HORSE GUARDS, WAR OFFICE,

The attention of Officers is drawn to the following REGULATIONS which are those now in force respecting FOREIGN ORDERS and are to be strictly adhered to.

1. No subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING

GRANTED FOR ACTS OF BRAVERY IN SAVING LIFE.

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF having sanctioned Medals granted for acts of bravery in saving life being worn in Uniform, whenever a Society may consider any officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier entitled to receive a Medal, the decoration, together with a statement of the act of bravery performed, should be sent to the Adjutant General to the Forces, in order that the recipient's name may be registered, and the necessary authority issued for the distinction to be worn.

These Medals will be worn on the Right Breast.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING

FOREIGN MEDALS.

148
333 & 610

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

MEMORANDA.

All General and Field Officers whose names are allowed to be retained in the Army List, whether they may have left the Service since or previously to the issuing of Her Majesty's Royal Warrant of the 6th October, 1854, should send a Notification to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for War of their being alive on the 1st January and the 1st July of each year.

All Officers who have commuted will have their Names retained in the Army List so long as they send a Notification to the War Office of their being alive on the 1st January and 1st July in each year.

All retired Field Officers of Militia and Yeomanry Cavalry whose names are allowed to be retained in the Army List, should send a Notification to the Under-Secretary of State for War of their being alive on the 1st January and the 1st July of each year.

If such Notification due on the 1st January be not received at the War Office by the 1st April, and that due on the 1st July by the 1st October, it will be concluded that the Officer is deceased, and his name will be removed from the Army List.
